rings,
And carefree days are lost to mundane
things--
When nostalgia strikes, and your memory
wanes,
And you remember the faces but not the

Pick up your yearbook and leaf it through,
And remember the days so dear to you.

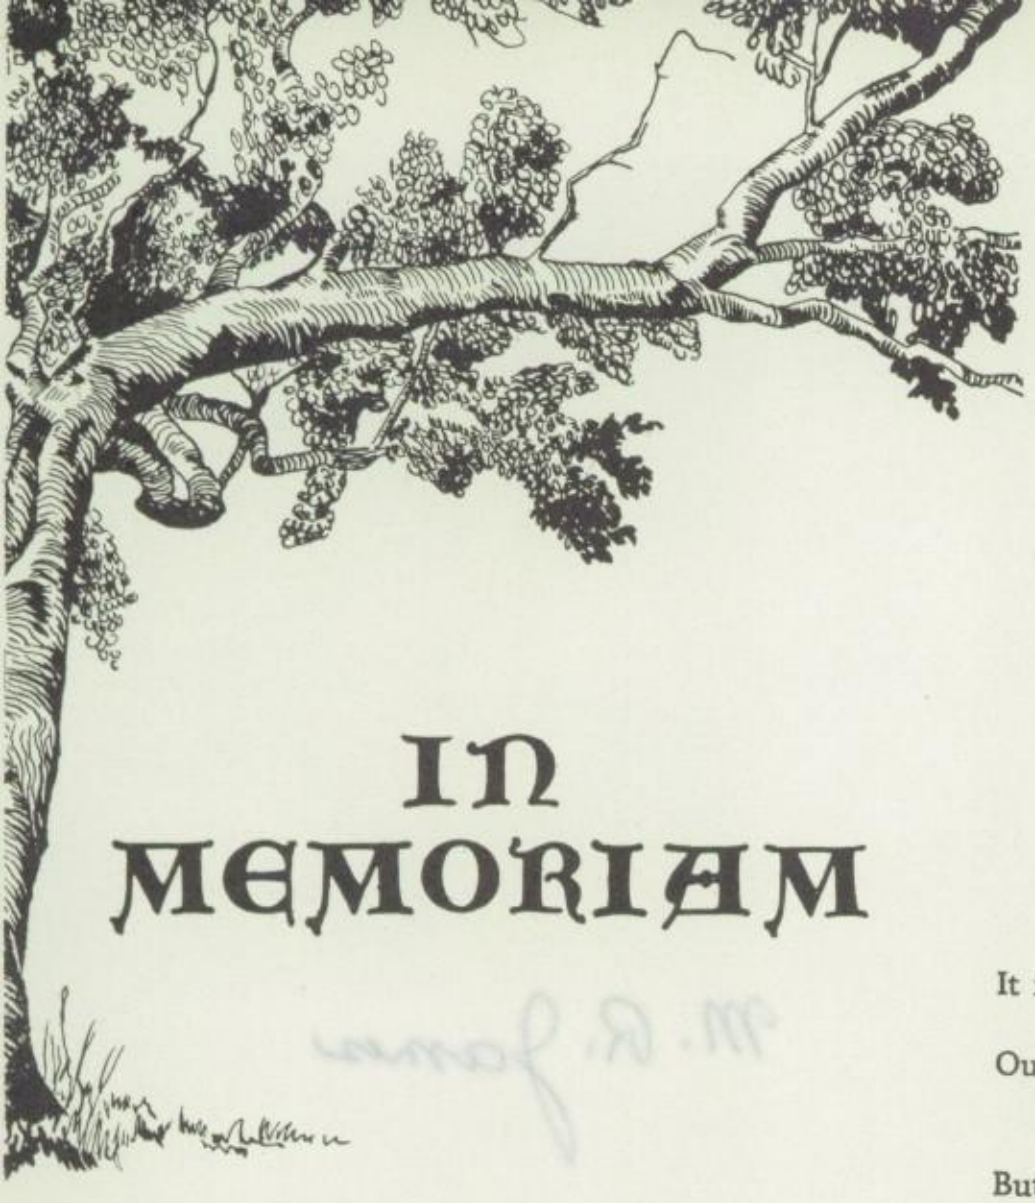
SENIOR CLASS OF SPENCERVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Spencerville, Ohio

DEDICATION

Through the years we will face many tasks for which there must be set a goal. This year we have reached one goal--graduation. Our accomplishments have been made possible through the cooperation of the people of this community in providing adequate facilities for education. The new high school will aid each and all in setting future goals a little higher.

We, the graduating class of 1962, would like to show our appreciation to this community by dedicating our annual to you.



IN MEMORIAM

The Horizon

It is as if we stood on some vast shore
Of one great sea, and waiting there, we send
Our gaze far, far away, until at last
We mark some distant line that seemed the end.

But soul, reach on undaunted, bold and free,
And for thy aspirations fear no bond,
What man calls Death is but the limit of
His vision: all the ocean lies beyond.

Our high school students now have the advantages of new facilities; these having been provided by the people of the community. We now have adequate space and pleasant surroundings for all the students in the Spencerville School District. Fine buildings with modern equipment is only one aspect of our educational program; however it is the maximum use of these facilities and equipment that makes the real contribution to the educational advancement of each student.

Appreciation

MISS DEEMER

MRS. SARKA

A builder builded a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said, as they saw its beauty,
"It shall never know decay.
Great is thy skill, O builder:
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised her unceasing efforts,
None knew of her wondrous plan;
For the temple the teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumbled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the teacher builded
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Is a child's immortal soul.

It is in deep appreciation that we, the Seniors of Spencerville High School, extend our heart-felt thanks to Miss Deemer and Mrs. Sarka for the wonderful guidance they have given us and many other senior classes.

"A MOMENT TO REMEMBER"

Homecoming 1961 was an event that will stand out in the memories of all. Long hours were spent during the week decorating, ordering flowers, securing entertainment, and making sure everything was set for the big day.

Amidst screams, laughs, and cheers the Homecoming assembly opened. Pep talks raised the hopes for victory to new heights.

Preceding the game, as the Spencerville High School Band played "Star Dust," the 1961 Homecoming Queen and her court were introduced. The coronation was performed by last year's queen, Miss Karen Carey.

During the game that night we cheered loudly and our team did its best to try to defeat our Bluffton opponents. After the game we enjoyed a festive mood, as we danced to the theme of "Deep Purple," the music provided by Larry's Dixieland Six.

At the fall of midnight, streamers lay about, the dance floor was empty, but Homecoming 1961 will remain in every heart.

"Wish I were a football player."

"Does your chewing gum lose its flavor?"

JUNIORS

The class of '63 started its junior year with great enthusiasm and determination. Juniors sponsored the first dance held in the new high school. Bake sales and car washes were other activities during the year.

The November undertaking of the juniors was their class play, "The Crazy Mixed-Up Kidds." Since this was the first class play presented in the new auditorium, the class faced many problems, but once more their determination won out.

The outstanding event of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom. Though small in number, the spirit and cooperation of the Class of 63 makes it mighty.

ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

Since this was the first year in the new high school, the student council was responsible for seeing that the building was not abused. Student handbooks were published and sold to aid the students in getting acquainted with the new building. The council sponsored several assemblies during the year and sold pennants to earn money. A new project has been the council's correspondence with a sister school in Africa.

The Spencerville F.F.A. Chapter has been exceptionally active during the past year in the field of community service. During the fall, our Chapter collected over two hundred dollars for the Christian Rural Overseas Program, almost as much as the other seven Allen County F.F.A. Chapters combined. The F.F.A. also helped the local park board in establishing the Spencerville Community Park, reseeded the football field, and planted grass on the lawn of the high school. We also held exchange meetings with five other area F.F.A. Chapters in order to learn of the other Chapter's activities and study new methods in agriculture and community cooperation.

Eleven seemed to be our lucky number this year. Eleven boys went to State F.F.A. camp, eleven champion awards were won at county fairs, and this is the eleventh year that our Chapter has received a gold award in the State Chapter Contest.

Larry Mueller won a gold award for his prepared speech and placed second in the District F.F.A. Public Speaking Contest. Dennis Louth won a gold award for his ability in extemporaneous speaking. Both Junior and Senior teams received gold awards in the County Parliamentary Procedure Contest. Bernard Louth received the State Farmer Award and Larry Mueller and Tom Zimmerman placed first and second respectively in the County in the Agricultural Scholarship Test.

We are proud of our accomplishments in thirty years of F.F.A. work and it is hoped that our program has had a beneficial effect on the community.

The F.H.A. holds its regular meeting on the third Tuesday evening of every month. The main projects included collecting pennies for Lebanon children, caroling at Christmas, and holding a Daddy Date-Night in February. In the spring five girls went to Columbus to spend a weekend on the Ohio State Campus.

The purpose of F.H.A. is to work for good home and family life for all, to promote international good will, and to develop leadership in home and community.

The club would like to express its appreciation to Miss Carol Packer for her wonderful help.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Association is to encourage girls to participate in sports activities and to display good sportsmanship. Enthusiasm is the prime requisite for membership. The G.A.A.'s sports activities include volleyball, basketball, bowling, softball, shuffleboard, and badminton. This year the girls have added archery to their program by purchasing the necessary equipment. The G.A.A. has an interscholastic program and also engages in many money making and service programs. In the spring an annual spring banquet is held for the girls and their mothers at which awards are given and the new officers installed.

The year '62 brought many more changes in the "Echoes." The use of more pages and a color picture is the most noticeable change. Among the more important features is the use of "silhouette" division pages. These along with the cover have given this year's annual a different appearance.

The 1962 "Echoes" was published by the American Yearbook Company and the photography was done by Hoverman of Delphos.

The staff wishes to express their most sincere thanks to Mrs. Sarka, our advisor, and all the patrons who have made our annual possible. We have been working hard all year to produce a complete book of memories.

The 1961 Bearcat football squad had high hopes following the Waynesfield game as they trounced the Tigers 26-0. But this was about as far as the high hopes went as we lost the next nine games to wind up with a 1-9 record. The only other bright spots were a good second half against a tough Delphos St. Johns eleven in which we managed to hold them to a mere two touchdowns--one being a lucky break, and a fine first half against Bath--the halftime score being 8-0 against us. Credit is due to this team, mainly because they had enough intestinal fortitude to finish the season. It can be best summed up by that old battle cry, "Wait till next year!"

We had all the breaks this season, physically speaking. This was a big factor in our showing. Unable to finish the season were these six unfortunate injured players.

Although our basketball team finished with a 6-10 record this year, they showed considerable improvement towards the end of the season, winning three of the last five ball games. A very slow start hampered us, but Spencerville cheering sections were finally presented with some good ball games.

The Senior Class has proudly donated the major portion of the funds necessary for the purchase of a football scoreboard similar to that pictured. We almost decided to place only one digit under the visitor's column and three digits in the home column, but extra expense ruined this otherwise practical idea. Now both teams will have an equal chance to score in double figures. We hope to see many victories recorded by these lights in future years.

HUMBLE APOLOGY

We of the Echoes staff acknowledge the fact that we may have hurt someone's feelings this year in our excellent attempts at humor. Because of circumstances beyond our control we no doubt chopped down some personalities or groups more than others. Therefore, since we believe in equality in all that we do, we would like to apologize to everyone who we failed to cut down sufficiently. If we missed you, it's simply because you blend in with the walls so well.

"One Foot in Heaven"

When Rev. Spence, his high school age, trouble-getting-into-children, and attractive wife walk into the run-down, dilapidated parsonage at their new parish, it's quite a shock . . . but that's only the beginning. Rev. Spence finds the church building starting to disintegrate, the congregation split into warring factions and the choir "a cross between the devil's grandmother and a swarm of mountain wildcats" . . . and that's not the worst. The town is being poisoned by bigotry. Eileen and Hartzell, the teen age children, are pretty disgusted at having been yanked out of a comfortable parsonage and a swell high school. But then Hartzell meets prtety Louise, and Eileen is introduced to Ronny, the football captain. The uproarious complications that result make even more difficulties for Rev. Spence. His struggle to build a new church, organize a new choir, and crush intolerance, leads to a pitched battle among his flock, and then the very threat of his being dismissed from the clergy. On the day he is to leave for the conference to defend himself, Rev. Spence has a minor accident that puts him in bed. At the same time, Hartzell's personal complications have led him not only to the brink of romantic disaster, but right into the local hoosegow . . . and just when the entire future of the Spence family depends on him. The surpirsing, whirlwind conclusion brings down the curtain on an inspirational theme.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"The Crazy Mixed-up Kidds"

Pretty Sylvia Kidd has invited several guests to Eerie Heights, a spooky old mansion inherited from a distant cousin. Sylvia plans to make a martyr of herself and marry rich Jervis Smythe, for the sake of her brother and sister, fourteen-year-old twins. But Billy and Candy are rooting for Brad Ewing, with whom Sylvia has quarreled. The Terrible Twins play all manner of side-spliting pranks upon Jervis and his haughty sister Annabel, hoping to frighten them away. Billy plays ghost but succeeds principally in scaring Gloriola Glubb, the cook. But two REAL specters haunt the house--Captain Kidd, the pirate, and Ebeneezer Skaggs, the carpenter who built Kidd a secret room. Other characters: Cletus Kidd, an elderly cousin, who believes he is the reincarnation of his famous ancestor; Ardella McArdle, a writer of mystery novels; and Sara Twiggles, the mournful cockney "housekeeper."

The Spencerville Dramatics Club presented a Christmas program to the student body. It was entitled "The Gate at the Inn." On February 17th the members presented "Meet Me In St. Louis." The cast wore clothes that were actually worn during the early nineteenth century.

The organization was established this year for those interested in acting, and to purchase dramatic equipment. It is under the direction of Mr. Thomas Mohr.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

After an undefeated season in football, the Junior High came back with a winning basketball team, too. The team started the regular league play with some trouble, but they improved as season progressed. During the year they won eight games while losing four, but showed their best form by capturing runners-up trophy in the County Tournament.
